Welcome Address

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the European Society for Sexual Medicine (ESSM), the two French Associations of Sexology, AIUS (Association Interdisciplinaire post-Universitaire de Sexologie) and its President Mireille Bonierbale, SFMS (Société Francophone de Médecine Sexuelle) and its President Gilbert Bou Jaoudé, we are delighted to welcome you all to the 19th Congress of the ESSM in Nice, 2017.

Nice is a pulsating city, capital of the French Riviera and its famous “Promenade des Anglais” running on the sea shore ANGELS BAY with the snowed ALPES Mountains in decor background. Even in winter the temperatures are lenient. You can reach Nice Côte d’Azur Airport (2nd Airport of the country) on non-stop flights from more than 140 destinations. The ESSM congress will be hosted at the Acropolis Center.

The goals of the congress will be to both deliver the optimal scientific and educational programs and to promote the field of Sexual Medicine. The content of the congress will cover topics regarding both sexes and all sexual orientations and both state-of-the-art educational opportunities and the newest innovative research will be highlighted. To achieve this, the faculty will include both renowned experts and up-coming stars in our field. The Local Organizing Committee will strive to make the importance of the congress evident to the public and to the scientific and health care authorities. This is crucial because of the obvious co-dependence between the people who develop and the people who perform treatments. Finally, we wish to create more networking opportunities for especially young researchers and health care providers with an interest in Sexual Medicine. We encourage each of you to listen, to learn, to disagree, to debate and if required to argue, and most of to enjoy both, old and new friendships.

If you have time to enjoy the city during the congress, a thousand year history awaits you in museums and open historical buildings throughout the Old City (Vieux-Nice).

We look forward to welcoming you to Nice and together we will build a great ESSM Congress for 2017.

CME ACCREDITATION

The 19th Congress of the European Society for Sexual Medicine (ESSM) in Nice, France, 2 – 4 February 2017 was granted 18 European CME credits (ECMEC) by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME).

Accreditation by the EACCME confers the right to place the following statement in all communication materials including the registration website, the event program and the certificate of attendance. The following statements must be used without revision: The 19th Congress of the European Society for Sexual Medicine (ESSM) is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.net.

The 19th Congress of the European Society for Sexual Medicine (ESSM) is designated for a maximum of (or for up to) 18 hours of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists and the American Medical Association, physicians may convert EACCME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at: www.ama-assn.org/go/internationalcme.

Live educational activities, occurring outside of Canada, recognized by the UEMS-EACCME for ECMEC credits are deemed to be Accredited Group Learning Activities (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.
MEETING AWARDS

The best presentations will be awarded by ESSM's Scientific Committee.

1. Prize for the best presentation on psychosexual, gender and sexology
2. Prize for the best presentation on FSD (clinical)
3. Prize for the best presentation on basic and translational research
4. Prize for the best presentation on MSD (clinical)
5. Prize for best surgical video

Please note that the author of the presentation must be present during the congress in Nice.

THE ESSM PRESTIGE AWARDS

The Executive Committee of ESSM decided to establish two awards to be presented during the annual meetings of the Society.

The ESSM Career Award
This award will be presented to a senior scientist who has made an outstanding contribution in the field. The award winner will be decided by the Executive and Scientific Committees. The award will be presented during the opening ceremony.

The ESSM Award of Excellence
This award is presented annually to a physician or scientist under 40 years of age (either in basic sciences or clinical practice) who has made recent exceptional achievement in the field.

ESSM RESEARCH GRANTS

Every year ESSM grants up to EUR 30,000 each to 3 – 4 research projects with a maximum duration of 18 months. Research Grants are open to all ESSM members who fulfill the eligibility criteria. The application deadline, eligibility criteria and terms and conditions of the grants can be found at the ESSM website. We will be hearing from some of the previous grant holders in Nice meeting about their exciting and ground breaking research.

ESSM BASIC SCIENTIST TRAVELGRANTS

These grants which all members of ESSM are welcome to apply for (providing that they meet the eligibility criteria), are intended to support basic scientists wishing to attend the ESSM Annual Congresses. ESSM recognises that basic scientists who are not actively engaged in clinical work in sexual medicine field may have difficulty finding sponsors to attend ESSM Annual Congresses. ESSM will therefore award a free registration and EUR 500 travel expenses to ten of its members towards attending the Annual Congresses. The application deadline, eligibility criteria and terms and conditions of the grants can be found at the ESSM website.

F1000 POSTER PRIZES

The 'Faculty of 1000' has offered three best poster prizes during the 19th ESSM Congress 2017 in Nice for pre-clinical, male clinical and female clinical research.

The prizes will comprise of:
1. A year's personal subscription to F1000Prime – “any award winner is clearly somebody who takes their research seriously and has excelled in their work. In order to harness this enthusiasm, we provide them with their own personal access to F1000Prime recommendations so that they can keep up to date with the top articles in the literature, and help in supplementing ongoing projects.”
2. A free submission to F1000Research – “we provide the winners with the opportunity to publish their work rapidly with no hassle, giving them quick priority on their work, and enabling everyone in the field to benefit from their work right away.”
3. A Faculty of 1000 certificate – “because it’s nice to have a hard copy of the achievement for the award winner’s record and curriculum vitae”.

F1000 is composed of 5,000 Faculty Members – senior scientists and leading experts in all areas of biology and medicine – plus their associates. The Faculty recommends the most important articles, rating them and providing short explanations for their selections. More info can be found at http://f1000.com/.

WS-01 WORKSHOP

11:00 – 12:00

Galliliéni 1 + 2

PDE5i: Optimization and secrets in their use

Chair: Dimitris Hatzichristou, Greece

Audience: physicians and sexologists working with erectile dysfunction patients

Aims: The aim of the workshop is to improve physician’s clinical skills in order to use PDE5 inhibitors more efficiently.

Learning Objectives: During the last 20 years, PDE5 inhibitors have revolutionized the field of sexual medicine. With a 50% – 70% efficacy in clinical trials based on disease severity, as well as an excellent safety profile, PDE5i became the first treatment option for erectile dysfunction (ED). Despite the wide use of PDE5 inhibitors, more than half of the patients will drop out from this form of treatment, while 30-50% are non-responders. There are however strategies to improve treatment outcomes, as well as to converse non-responders to responders to PDE5 inhibitors. Secrets that have been identified through 20 years of clinical experience.

Summary of contents: Several questions from the everyday clinical practice will be answered:

- Why can’t regular clinical practice reach the efficacy and tolerance rates of the clinical trials?
- Is every patient prescribing every patient with ED a PDE5i enough? Which PDE5i should we use?
- Should we use PDE5i in young patients with psychogenic ED?
- Are there differences in the management strategy of men with comorbidities, such as diabetes or cardiovascular disease?
- How should we treat men that haven’t being sexually active for a long time?
- How can we distinguish pseudo-non-responders from non-responders? How could we eliminate the side effects of PDE5 inhibitors?

Overall, this is a workshop dedicated to individualized management strategies for men with ED.

WS-02 WORKSHOP

16:00 – 17:00

Galliliéni 1 + 2

Infertility and Pregnancy: Are these issues on the way to kill sex?

Chair: Ates Kadioglu, Turkey

Speakers: Ahmet Baris Altay, Turkey / Lior Lowenstein, Israel

Objectives: Sexual life of infertile couples are greatly disturbed by both infertility and its treatment. The loss of sexual spontaneity, direct linkage of sex into pregnancy without entertainment, decreased self-esteem and body image of the individuals are the suggested reasons of sexual dysfunctions in infertile couples. The sexual dysfunction problem is increased by the relation-ship problems of couples and negative influence of hormonal treatment. In case of conceived pregnancy, couples still encounter sexual problems. A steep drop of sexual intercourse frequency happens during pregnancy and recover only sixth month after partum. Orgasm frequency, satisfaction and dyspareunia are also negatively affected in the first two trimesters of pregnancy.

Our objectives improve the urologists’ awareness about these cause-effect relations and furthermore prepare our colleagues for the diagnosis and prevention of this disease.

Learning objectives:

- The awareness of the bidirectional link of sexual dysfunction and infertility
- Assessment and prevention of possible risk factors
- Investigating both male and female aspects of this phenomena
- Diagnosis and management of sexual dysfunction in infertile couples
- Investigate the negative impact of pregnancy on sexual life
- Update the literature knowledge of the attendees about the subject
- Application of the obtained skill set to their clinical practice

WS-03 WORKSHOP
08:00 – 09:00 Galliliéni 1 + 2
Premature ejaculation: How to make the medication work better
Chair: Pedro Vendeira, Portugal
 Speakers: Pedro Vendeira, Portugal
 Sandra Vilarinho, Portugal
Audience: Physicians and Psychologists treating men with premature ejaculation and their partners
Aim: The aim of this workshop is to tailor specific approaches on premature ejaculation based on evidence based data together with tips and tricks from experts in the field.

Learning Objectives: True prevalence of premature ejaculation remains unclear, due to different definitions but it should be around 20 to 30%. Without clear understanding, it is imperative that all efforts should be directed to a better analysis and treatment of this condition. Since the days of a psychosexual disorder to the recent paradigm that some men are born with a genetic predisposition to ejaculate faster than others, it seems that we still miss some treatment goals. The use of pharmacotherapy as first-line treatment for lifelong premature ejaculation has a level of evidence 1a and a grade of recommendation A according to the 2016 European Association of Urology guidelines, but it is a fact that we are missing the point in a great number of patients. In fact, by using pharmacotherapy with dapoxetine on demand (a short-acting SSRI that is the only approved pharmacological treatment for premature ejaculation) or other off-label antidepressants, i.e. daily SSRIs, that are not amenable to on-demand dosing, recurrence is likely after treatment cessation. What can we do to overcome this situation? Is it helpful and how to address psychological, relational, and socio-cultural factors before, during and after treatment in order to maintain the gains and prevent recurrence?

Concerning the management of acquired premature ejaculation we do only have a grade of recommendation C for the combined use of psychological/behavioural therapies with pharmacological treatment.

Psychosexual treatments such as behavioural (e.g., squeeze or start-and-stop technique) and cognitive therapies (e.g., cognitive restructuring) seem to help men in developing sexual skills to control ejaculation, reduce performance anxiety, and promote communication with their partners. However, these approaches are time consuming and robust evidence regarding the efficacy of these psychological-behavioural therapies is still missing.

Again, what can we do about it, how can we improve results from combined therapy?

Summary of contents:
- Guidelines on PE treatment
- Pharmacotherapy failure, dropout and non-responders...
- Combination of pharmacology and psychotherapy as the most promising intervention for lifelong and acquired PE. How to do it?
- Pharmacotherapy combinations
- Common sense behaviours

WS-07 WORKSHOP

Difficult cases in psychogenic erectile dysfunction
Chair: Paraskevi-Sofia Kirana, Greece

Introduction: The available research data on interventions for the treatment of psychogenic erectile dysfunction, show that there is a large heterogeneity of therapeutic strategies been employed, the number of outcome studies is very small, and also, most of the studies have important methodological problems. Therefore, although sexologists today have a very wide range of tools they could possibly use, the evidence base is extremely small.

Aim: The aim of the workshop is to help physicians improve skills to manage psychogenic ED cases.

Objectives: The objectives of the workshop are to interpret sexual history, to design patient centred treatment plans through a bio-psychosocial framework, and also, to implement parts of the treatment through a staged approach, according to the therapist’s comfort level. The above will be demonstrated for a series of challenging cases of psychogenic ED. Issues of personality characteristics, couple problems and also solo men will be discussed.
WS-08 WORKSHOP

Cancer, intimacy and sexuality (with book introduction)
Chair: Yacov Reisman, The Netherlands
Speakers: Yacov Reisman, The Netherlands
Woet L. Gianotten, The Netherlands

Audience: Physicians, physician assistants and psychologists treating men and women with cancer.

Aim: To help health care providers to tailor their daily clinical practice to some of the possible sexual consequences of Cancer disease and cancer treatment.

Introduction of the book: Cancer, Intimacy and Sexuality

Learning objectives:
- To get basic knowledge of oncosexology
- To recognize some of the most prevalent sexual consequences of cancer disease and treatment
- To be aware about the possible consequences and needs of this neglected subject

Summary of contents: With the emergence of advanced treatment modalities for cancer, the survival rate of cancer patients has increased, often leading to long-term survival in which cancer become a chronic condition. The disease, the diagnosis and the therapies, can have a negative effect on the quality of life, on the ability to maintain intimacy and sexuality of both the patient and the partner.

Majority of oncological patients, particularly those with gynaecological and urological cancers, suffer from various sexual dysfunctions. Although sexual problems are common among cancer patients, very little professional and therapeutic attention is paid to that aspect of their life. While health care professionals (HCP) are increasingly confronted with questions regarding long-term survival, but also regarding physical, emotional and sexual side-effects of cancer and its treatment.

The provide patients and their partners with adequate care, a multidisciplinary team of HCP (physicians, psychologists, social workers, couple therapists and sexologists, oncology nurses etc), should work together to provide up-to-date information and at a later stage adequate therapy focusing on the sexual and relational needs.

Whereas the patient needs attention for intimacy and sexuality and the right approach to the various disturbances, the professional needs the knowledge and skills to properly inquire about changes. And all of this in according to the bio-psycho-social approach.

For a good cancer care the topic of sexuality and intimacy should be effectively addressed. Problems in this field should be taken seriously and handled professionally and, when necessary, the patients or the couple should be referred to a colleague with oncosexological expertise. Addressing the issue of sexuality and giving the proper information requires a mindset with the right attitude and skills where much can be done already with a limited amount of knowledge.

During the workshop some practical aspects of oncosexology will be addressed according to the first practical book on oncosexology, “Cancer, Intimacy and Sexuality”.

Lessons from the experts beyond the EBM (Evidence Based Medicine)
Sexual Medicine is a discipline concerned with the impact From Evidence Based to Expert’s Tips and Tricks in Sexual Medicine!

The ESSM UPDATE 2017 is intended to support some gaps in the field of Sexual Medicine Education, namely what is not written in the books. That’s why we call it “From Knowledge to Bedside Practice”. In fact, it is the ideal moment to ask for pearls and diamonds on Sexual Medicine skills. WHY? Because be sure that this is the right place where you might be able to find what you always wanted to learn, but didn’t know where to look for...

Education is one of the main purposes of ESSM. We want to promote research and exchange of knowledge about the clinical entity of sexual dysfunction throughout Europe, to establish and support the highest standards of ethics in clinical practice, education, and research in the field of sexual dysfunction and to provide education to clinicians who had limited or no experience in the field, as well as continuing education to those involved in the management of sexual dysfunctions.

Sexual Medicine as a multidisciplinary activity raises the attention of a huge number of healthcare providers from all kind of specialties. This is a fact that we all must be aware of in order to provide the best service for our associates.

This one day course takes place the day before the Annual Congress in Nice (www.essm-congress.org) and then will take place every other year, switching with the ESSM preparation course that takes place before the MJCSM and ECPS exams (for more information on these certifications on Sexual Medicine go to www.essm.org/education/certifications).

And even if you don’t feel fully updated and enlightened, you can always join the “Lunch with the Experts” – the right moment to ask: Look, I have this patient at my office door with these complaints. How should I proceed…?

NICE
Nice is the capital of the French Riviera and with 350,000 inhabitants France’s fifth largest city. Located between the Mediterranean and the Alps the city ranks as France’s second most popular tourist destination after Paris. Nice is also famous for its delicious cooking, a traditional Mediterranean cuisine, rich in vegetables, flavour and aromas. Find more information about Nice’s cuisine and its recommended restaurants here.

Well equipped with almost 200 hotels, 10,000 bedrooms and easily accessible all over Europe, to North America and Middle East Nice is a suitable place for scientific exchange and meetings. The Nice Acropolis, located in the heart of Nice has therefore been selected by the ESSM as the spot of science, communication and socializing under colleagues in the field of Sexual Medicine.

This medicinal product is subject to additional monitoring. This will allow quick identification of new safety information. Healthcare professionals are asked to report any suspected adverse reactions. See full SPC for how to report adverse reactions.

Spedra 50 mg, 100 mg and 200 mg tablets. Composition: Each tablet contains 50 mg, 100 mg or 200 mg of avanafil. Therapeutic indications: Treatment of erectile dysfunction in adult men. Posology and method of administration: For oral use. The recommended dose is 100 mg taken as needed approximately 15 to 30 minutes before sexual activity. Dose may be increased to a maximum dose of 200 mg or decreased to 50 mg. Maximum recommended dosing frequency is once per day. In order for Spedra® to be effective, sexual stimulation is required. If taken with food, the onset of activity may be delayed compared to the fasted state. No dose adjustment needed for older men, mild to moderate renal impairment (creatinine clearance ≥ 30 mL/min) or diabetes.

Contraindications: Hypersensitivity to active substance or excipients. Patients using any form of organic nitrate or nitric oxide donors. Consider potential cardiac risk of sexual activity in patients with pre-existing cardiovascular disease before prescribing. Contraindicated in myocardial infarction, stroke, or life-threatening arrhythmia within the last 6 months; resting hypotension (<90/50 mmHg) or hypertension (>140/100 mmHg); unstable angina, angina with sexual intercourse, or congestive heart failure (NYHA ≥ 2). Severe hepatic (Child-Pugh class C) or renal impairment (creatinine clearance < 30 mL/min). Loss of vision in one eye because of non-arteritic anterior ischemic optic neuropathy. Known hereditary degenerative retinal disorders. Concomitant use of potent CYP3A4 inhibitors. The co-administration of type 5 phosphodiesterase (PDE5) inhibitors, including avanafil, with guanylate cyclase stimulators, such as riociguat is contraindicated as it may potentially lead to symptomatic hypotension. Interactions: Administration with organic nitrate or nitric oxide donor contraindicated. May cause symptomatic hypotension with medicinal products which reduces systemic blood pressure. Alpha-blockers, other antihypertensives, alcohol, moderate CYP3A4 inhibitors – maximum recommended dose 100 mg, do not exceed once every 48 hours. Preclinical studies showed additive systemic blood pressure lowering effect when PDE5 inhibitors were combined with riociguat. In clinical studies, riociguat has shown to augment the hypotensive effects of PDE5 inhibitors. There was no evidence of favourable clinical effect of the combination in the population studied. Concomitant use of riociguat with PDE5 inhibitors, including avanafil, is contraindicated. Undesirable effects:

Very common (≥1/10): none. Common (≥ 1/100 to < 1/10): headache, flushing, nasal congestion. Uncommon (≥ 1/1000 to < 1/100): dizziness, somnolence, sinus headache, blurred vision, palpitations, hot flush, sinus congestion, exertional dyspnea, dyspepsia, nausea, vomiting, stomach discomfort, back pain, muscle tightness, fatigue, hepatic enzyme increased, electrocardiogram abnormal, heart rate increased.
